RELEASE OF LIABILITY & AGREEMENT TO RESPECT WSCF COMMUNITY NORMS

As a voluntary participant in this program, I agree to respect the bodily, mental, and spiritual integrity of myself and others. I commit myself to respecting the group and those welcoming us. I will welcome each individual who wishes to join us and recognize the gifts that the diversity of our ethnicities, genders, abilities, religious affiliations & theologies, sexual orientations, political views and identities bring to this programme. I will strive to ensure this gathering is safe and supportive of all participants – regardless of sexual/gender identity, ethnic background, economic status, and theological/political background, and will strive to challenge oppression in any of its forms.

I hereby confirm that I have voluntarily chosen to participate in the Student Christian Movement USA's conference "Overcoming Violence: Encountering the Past, Engaging the Present, Empowering the Future" Conference, Oct. 8th-11th 2010. I expressly and voluntarily assume all such risks that may result from my participation. By submitting this form, I allow the release of photographs or videos produced by the SCM-USA which contain or bear my image to become creative property of the SCM-USA and used for SCM-USA-related purposes and publicity.

For safety reasons, I may request that photos and videos not be published with my image; however, I hereby acknowledge that I will not hold the SCM-USA legally responsible should such images be released and recognize that this is essentially a public gathering.
